

Infinitem Technology was founded in early 2004 by a partnership of young and energetic technopreneur. Our early business area is to provide ICT solution mainly in hardware solution, such as networking and security services. Nowadays, the company has expanded our service offering to cater for local ICT demands. The company itself also gone through the major rebranding to better represent the company image.